Medical nurse

The medical nurse is your first point of contact. She answers different medical questions or may refer you to the general practitioner. She is qualified for certain medical activities, for example taking blood work, injections, cleaning ears, taking cervical smears and treatment of warts with nitrogen. The medical nurse has her own consulting hours.

General Practitioner - consulting hours

You can make an appointment for a consultation via the medical nurse.

An appointment takes 10 minutes. If you think this will not be enough, we ask you kindly to inform the medical nurse at the time of booking.

General Practitioner - telephone consulting hours

For brief medical questions you can contact the general practitioner during a telephone consultation. You can make an appointment via the medical nurse.

Home visits

The general practitioner can visit you when, for medical reasons, you cannot visit our medical practice. You can make an appointment via the medical nurse.

Medical Somatic Supporter (MSS)

The MSS is specialized in Cardiovascular Diseases (among others blood pressure, cholesterol), Diabetes Mellitus, Asthma, COPD and elderly people.

You can make an appointment with her via the medical nurse.

Medical Supporter Mental Health Care (MSMHC)

The MSMHC gives advice to patients with psychological complaints.

You can make an appointment with her via the medical nurse.

Dietitian

The dietitian gives advice about nourishment to patients with overweight, too low weight, Diabetes Mellitus, complaints about the gastro-enteric channel and in relation to high blood pressure and cholesterol.

She has her own consulting hours. You can make an appointment via the medical nurse.

Emergencies within office hours between 8.00 and 17.00

For emergencies within working hours you can reach us via the emergency telephone number 071 - 513 15 41. An emergency is an acute health problem, disease or injury which makes immediate medical care necessary.

In life-threatening situations please call immediately 112.

Emergencies outside office hours, during weekends and official holidays

For emergencies outside office hours please contact 'Huisartsenposten de Limes' (huisartsenpostendelimes.nl) via phone number 088 - 427 47 00.
